THIS COLORING BOOK BELONGS TO:

Whisky the cat was homeless and on the hunt for yummy treats. She spied an open box, jumped inside, and to her delight found boxes of cookies!

However, before she knew it, the box was placed onto a van, her included! Where was she being taken to?

The box was delivered to no ordinary house, but one filled with Fuzzballs! Whisky was greeted by the Fuzzballs and adopted by a new caring owner.

A MESSAGE FROM THE CREATOR

Hi! I'm Marc Sach; thank you for purchasing this book. Fuzzballs would not exist without fans like you. I started Fuzzballs as a silly little webcomic in my spare time in 2013, and now we have our very own book! So thank you for supporting us. Send us photos of your #fuzzballs coloring; we can't wait to see what you create! Look out for even more Fuzzballs products and books in a store near you; and if you can't find them, demand they stock them!

This book is dedicated to Mia Rae Holland; I made this just for you! With all my love—Dad

DID YOU SPOT A MISTAKE? WELL, TIMMY DID IT.

COLORING JUST GOT A WHOLE LOT CUTER!

Welcome to the cuteness overload world of the Fuzzballs.

Join Whisky the cat, Timmy the tiger, Ollie the bunny, and their friends on a wonderful coloring adventure. The Fuzzballs are always on the hunt for adventure, friendship, and especially food! Color in their world in any way you like, from soft pastels to vibrant hues. The Fuzzballs are the stars of their very own webcomic and are known all over the world due to the over 2 billion uses of their social media stickers. Now you get to join them as they do some of their favorite activities, from playing the latest video games to munching on the tastiest junky food. Filled with pop-culture references, by the end of this book you'll certainly relate to one of the Fuzzballs, but which one will it be? So jump right in, take your time, relax, and enjoy some me time in the cutest way possible.
